13 August 1947

Mr. William A. Eddy
Special Assistant to the Secretary of State
New State Building
21st & Virginia Ave., NW
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Eddy:

The Central Intelligence Group offers no objection to the release of [] for reassignment in the Foreign Service, as requested in your letter dated 7 August 1947. His retention in CIG is desired however, until about 1 September, in order to allow time to complete certain duties.

[] has performed his duties in CIG in a most satisfactory manner and his loss will be regretted, but is accepted in view of assignment to more advanced and important duties.

Sincerely,

R. H. HILLENKOTTER
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence
